

Case study: Telemetry

This document is to provide the efforts of every individual who has participated in completing the Case Study.

Pavan Kumar Jonnadula – Actively participated in driving the car in both view modes. Created a track with the obstacles provided. Designed the Poster with all the information required.

Vamsi Alapathy – Participated in setting up the track and handled the car in both the view modes. Power point presentation is prepared based on the results of the data.

Naveen Krishnam – Participated in setting up the track and handled the car in both view modes. Power point presentation is prepared based on the results of the data.

Harish Jaladi – Created the pdf document which consists of Case study details more appropriate and explained briefly. Participated in driving the car and designing the track.

Sarath Boddu – I generated a concise and well-explained PDF document containing all the relevant details of the case study. Additionally, I actively participated in both driving the car and designing the track, contributing to the overall project.

Shajahan Mohammad – Created the pdf document which consists of Case study details more appropriate and explained briefly. Participated in driving the car and designing the track.

Ramya Deshetti – Actively participated in driving the car in both view modes. Created a track with the obstacles provided. Designed the Poster with all the information required.

Raju Thada – Actively participated in driving the car in both view modes. Created a track with the obstacles provided. Indulged in creating the GitHub repo and evaluating the reports and designing the track.